The application for registration implies knowing and accepting the rules of the contest.

About the Online modality

Due to the current health emergency, the edition of the XIV Culiacán 2021 International Guitar Competition will be in an Online/Virtual mode.

To participate, accepted contestants will receive a timely instruction sheet to proceed during the contest.

The jury of the XIV Culiacán 2021 International Guitar Competition will be made up of at least three musicians with extensive professional careers and recognized moral standing, of which at least two will be internationally renowned guitarists, and at least one of them will be a member of Fundación Cultural de la Guitarra AC.

All stages of the contest will be public and may be recorded on video and audio, and broadcast by radio, television, video or any other means, without causing any remuneration to the contestants.

The invitation to participate in the next edition, performing as a soloist with the Sinaloa Symphony Orchestra of the Arts, includes a cache of MXN $ 10,000 (ten thousand Mexican pesos).

The recording of the CD and its presentation of it in a future edition of the festival will be arranged at the times that the winner and the producer agree.

All contestants will receive proof of their participation in the competition.

Aspects not foreseen in this call will be subject to the criteria of the organizing committee.

The official languages to attend and report will be Spanish and English.

Attentively:
